I have read, understood and agree to abide by the rules of The Published Golden Gateway competition. I understand that contest judging is subjective, and that the decisions of the judges will be final. I agree to be bound by the judges' decisions and by the contest officials' decisions, regarding any question or dispute arising from or relating to the contest, the interpretation of official rules, and any other matters relating to the contest, not specifically covered by the official rules. In the event of any dispute arising from or relating to this contest, I agree to defend and hold harmless "From The Heart" chapter, its officers, contest personnel, members and judges from any and all liability. I understand that failure to agree to the above terms automatically disqualifies my entry.

I further understand that this contest is open only to published authors. Entries must be original works of fiction neither contracted nor published at the time of contest-entry deadline, and that all genres and subgenres will be judged together, with a fair judging provided to all entries.
